

Ol' Don's Drawing Table

© 2015

Front
Pattern
View

3/4
reference view

Left Pattern
View

If you always do right, you'll please some folks and make the rest wonder what you're up to.

As with most standing figures, a vertical grain direction is best for this project. The cross grain areas are pretty well self supporting so there should be no problem with breakage. Just use a little caution when carving his suspenders. Also, you may find carving his interlocked fingers a bit of a challenge.

BUBBA