1647 - First commercially successful American wines produced by Captain Brocas.

Vertical grain direction is best for this project. Some areas will be cross grain but they aren't thin or weak spots so there should be no problem with breakage. Just use a little caution.

1647 - A Mrs. Clark was given license to open a tavern in Salem, Mass, on the condition that she "provide a fit man to manage her business". Tavern and Inn-keeping provided means of livelihood to many widows of colonial times.

The time to relax is when you don't have time for it.
